FOREWORD

Through study, hard work, perseverance, guidance, and a genuine love for nursing our fondest hopes and dreams have become a reality. In our yearbook, we hope to capture and relive in the years to come, some of our fondest memories.

The stairway of tomorrow, our dreams, have become our pathway of today. Though the path be narrow the stones large, with the graceful help of God—Certainly it can be done.

THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE PLEDGE

I solemnly pledge myself before God and in the presence of this assembly, to pass my life in purity and to practice my profession faithfully. I will abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous, and will not take or knowingly administer any harmful drug. I will do all in my power to maintain and elevate the standard of my profession, and will hold in confidence all personal matters committed to my keeping and all family affairs coming to my knowledge in the practice of my profession. With loyalty will I endeavor to aid the physician in his work, and devote myself to the welfare of those committed to my care.

NURSES' PRAYER

Because the day that stretches out for me
Is full of busy hours, I come to Thee
To ask Thee, Lord, that Thou wilt see me through
The many things that I have to do.

Help me to make my bed the smoothest way
Help me to make more tempting every tray
Help me to sense when pain must have relief
Help me to deal with those borne down by grief.

Help me to take to every patient's room
Th light of life to brighten up the gloom;
Help me to bring to every soul in fear
The sure and steadfast thought that Thou art near.

And if today, or, tonight, maybe
Some patient in my care sets out to sea
To face the great adventure we call death,
Sustain them, Father in their parting breath.

Help me to live througout the live-long day
As one who loves Thee well, dear Lord I pray;
And when the day is done and evening stars
Shine through the dark above the sunset bars,
When weary quite, I turn to see my rest
Lord, may I truly know I've done my best.

—Ruth Winant Wheeler.

... In memory

For her deep understanding, thoughtfulness, patience and ever present kindness—we the senior class leave this 1959 edition of THE WHITE CAP in memory of Mrs. Jennie Holmes Linn. "She was a good soldier and fought a good fight."

We dedicate ...

We are at a loss for words to even begin to express our gratitude, appreciation, loyalty and undying love for such a great team as our urologists, Doctors Frazier, Erb and Cline. We humbly and proudly dedicate this 1959 WHITE CAP to these three who so galantly serve mankind.

Class History

On September 4, 1956, nineteen freshmen walked through the doors of the nurses' residence of Rowan Memorial Hospital, little knowing what lay ahead.

In the next nine months, we slaved through numerous courses (sixteen to be exact), and had our first experiences in caring for patients. We will never forget how proud we were when we put on our striped uniforms and white caps!

We chose Mrs. Millie Avery as our freshman class sponsor.

During our first year, Anne Dean, Peggy MacMillin, Nancy Glover, Anne Harding, Anna Harrelson, and June Powlas left us.

When June finally came, we laid aside our books, and began working eight hours a day in special services, and on medical and surgical floors. During the summer, we each welcomed two weeks of vacation.

In the fall of 1957, we realized we had taken our first big step as we became juniors and put on our black bands. We began classes in Obstetrics and advanced medical and surgical nursing.

Mrs. Grace Lee, Assistant Director of Education, became our Junior Class advisor. In December 1957, we began our affiliations, our Pediatric experience in Asheville, North Carolina, and our Psychiatric schooling in Torrance, Pa. This year we lost Virginia Beovich, Nell Whitaker, Anne Gettys and Jennie Hufford.

On September 4, 1958, our black bands and proud faces told us and the world that we were at last SENIORS.

We chose Miss Larice Roseman as our Senior Class advisor, and Miss Lula Mallard as our annual sponsor.

Of course, space would not permit an account of all the laughs, good times, and interesting experiences we have had, but they will live on in our memories always.

Class Prophecy

PLACE: Court Room of Salisbury Police Station
TIME: 3:30 P.M.
YEAR: 1979

The jury had been out four hours—the crowd in the court room was tense. Being tried, was the ten members of the Graduating Class of 1959 from the Rowan Memorial Hospital School of Nursing.

As we waited for the jury to return, I looked around at all the girls—everyone had changed somewhat in the past twenty years but yet, just then, we all seemed as close as we were back in 1959.

GWYN CULP who is now the President of the N.L.N., had looked very proud and dignified as she testified that she was Dr. Smith's office nurse and loving every minute of it.

As Director of Nursing Service at Rowan Memorial Hospital where we all had graduated, I, GAIL KEY, was especially proud to state some of the lastest nursing trends and how much patient care had been improved since 1959.

SARAH LEWIS, now married to a local railroad-man, is the Industrial Nurse for Southern Railroad Co. She recently invented a cure for the common cold. She calls her preparation "WESCOLYSN." It is a combination of Wescodyne and Lysol.

JANE MASON, also married with two lovely grandchildren, is now head nurse on a Maternity Ward at John Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Md. She has done some outstanding work in this field. Some of her articles are in the current issue of the A. J. N.

JOYCE PAYNE, married to Multi-millionaire Buddy Evans, is the local Health Director there in New York where they and their two sets of twins are making their home. Joyce needs this type job where she can work three days a week and still have time to keep the "minutes of the last meeting" correct—since she is also the Secretary of The American Red Cross.

BETTY SHAVER also married to, we all know who, was flown in from Honolulu for the trial. Eugene is making the service as a career and is stationed there. Shaver is the delegate member from the U. S. Govt. to Honolulu. Her job there calls for an alert nurse. We cannot disclose the nature of her duties there.

BETTY SMITH, now Mrs. J. Brewer, is the Head Nurse on the Pediatric Unit at U. N. C. They have four children and a beautiful home on the campus. Jim is the Administrator of the Hospital there.

MARY ANNE STRIDER who is married to a Pennsylvania guy, is the Director of Nursing Service at Torrance State Hospital. She is famous, world wide, for doing advanced work in the field of Psychiatry and Human Relations.

PATSY TYSON who arrived shortly before the trial began, testified that she was now the Director of the School for Midwifery in Kentucky. She is nationally known for her outstanding work in Obstetrics. In 1000 home deliveries she had only one infection.

LYNNE WILES who worked so hard, as I remember, on our yearbook—still looks tired! This could be attributed to the fact that she is now the Treasurer of the State Nurses' Association. She is also in charge of the Emergency Room at a large hospital in Tampa, Florida.

Just as I was thinking over our student days together—the jury filed in. The judge said, "Have you reached a verdict?" The spokesman for the jury happened to be an old, old friend of the class of '59—Mrs. Norma McCanless. She said, "In view of the facts presented before the court we the jury find that all members of Graduated Class of 1959 are actively working and serving mankind, therefore, we the jury find the Class of 1959 NOT GUILTY of "Hiding their lights under a Bushel."

School Song

Through the years that we have cherished,
And our dreams foretold,
The story of our destined future
That these portals hold.

Angels of mercy always,
Striving thus for life,
Keeping yet unto our duty
Through the fearless night.

So we shine in white and beauty,
God's servants are we,
Dedicated to our nation
For eternity.

In the halls of R. M. H.
Our hearts will always dwell,
And we'll praise our Alma Mater,
In her glorious realm.

And through pre-destination
This story thus is so,
Of a place called R. M. H.
And we love her so.

Chorus

Hail Rowan, Oh hail, Rowan,
To thee we'll ever be true,
Loving, faithful, earnest workers
For the golden rule.

Last Will and Testament

State: North Carolina
County: Rowan
City: Salisbury

We, the undersigned, known officially as the class of 1959, being sound in mind and body, realizing that our days at old Rowan are over, do hereby declare those after mentioned to be our legal and rightful heirs. We do hereby relinquish and make the following dispensations of our possessions.

ARTICLE I

To our parents, for their loving care and trust, we have our hopes, that our lives may be as successful, as their fondest dreams would have them to be.

ARTICLE II

To R. M. H., we give and bequeath to our hospital our undying loyalty, respect and admiration for three years of wonderful memories and for helping us to achieve this "our graduation day."

ARTICLE III

To our superiors—

Item I: To Mr. Heyd, our director, our deepest appreciation for his understanding and patience during our stay at R. M. H.
Item II: To our faculty, our heartful thanks and admiration.
Item III: To the doctors, for their patience, understanding and guidance, we leave our admiration and respect.
Item IV: To the nurses, we leave not only gratitude, but our sincere wish that the classes to follow will give them more ease and peace of mind.

ARTICLE IV

To the various individuals we leave the following:

1. I, Sarah Lewis, leave my record of "Summertime" "Summertime" to the Junior Class.
2. I, Lynne Wiles, leave to Sandra Kimbro and Shirley Tutterow the Loan Fund in hopes they can find money enough to pay the bills.
3. I, Gwyn Culp, leave my secret "crush" to Marie Phillips, only one draw back, don't pick on the same guy.
4. I, Mary Anne Strider, leave my Southern accent to Jean Fidler, for her Northern accent in hopes that I will use it in the near future.
5. I, Jane Mason, do hereby will my ability to work six months without a weekend to anyone who feels mentally and physically capable.
6. I, Gail Key, leave my ability to get exposed to half the contagious disease in the hospital to Edith Staley and Dot Byrd, in hopes they won't have nightmares sleeping it off in the infirmary.
7. I, Betty Smith, leave Patti Roberts my ability to graduate from a school of nursing with a Mrs. degree.
8. I, Betty Lou Shaver, leave my short waisted uniforms to Dot Mason, hoping that she enjoys wearing them.
9. I, Joyce Payne, remove all of Buddie's pictures from room 220 hoping that Winnie Davis will find a place to put Al's there.
10. I, Pat Tyson, will my room beside the kitchen across from the telephone and bathroom under the fire alarm to Nancy White and Alice Alexander in hopes they will find it as peaceful as I have.

In witness whereof, we, the seniors of 1959, do set seal on this the fourteenth day of April in the year of our Lord, Nineteen hundred and fifty nine.
